NOTICE OF DEFAULT AND INITIAL ORDER

This matter came to be heard on January 26, 2006, before Jina C. Shoaf, an Administrative Judge assigned to the Secretary of State, Administrative Procedures Division, and sitting for the Commissioner of the Tennessee Department of Commerce and Insurance in Nashville, Tennessee. Dakasha K. Winton, Staff Attorney, Department of Commerce and Insurance, represented the State. The Respondent, Steven Jack Wood, was not present at the hearing, nor did an attorney appear on his behalf.

ORDER OF DEFAULT

This matter was heard upon the Petitioner's Motion for Default due to a failure of the Respondent, Steven Jack Wood, to appear or to be represented at the hearing on January 26, 2006, after receiving proper notice thereof. The record indicates that the Respondent, Steven Jack Wood, was properly served under the provisions of Tenn. Code Ann. § 56-6-112. After consideration of the record, it was determined that the Petitioner's motion was proper. The Respondent, Steven Jack Wood, was held in DEFAULT, and the Petitioner was permitted to proceed with an uncontested case.

INITIAL ORDER

The subject of this hearing was the proposed revocation of the Respondent's insurance producer license in Tennessee. After consideration of the argument of counsel and the record in this matter, it is the determination of this administrative judge that the Respondent's insurance producer license should be REVOKED and the Respondent is ordered to pay One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) in civil penalties. This decision is based upon the following findings of fact and conclusions of law.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Respondent, Steven Jack Wood, (hereinafter referred to as "Respondent"), is a resident of Brentwood and citizen of Tennessee, with his mailing address being 6317 Laurelwood Drive, Brentwood, Tennessee 37027. The Respondent holds an insurance producer license, numbered 705632, issued by the Commissioner on January 23, 1990.
2. On June 23, 2005, the Commissioner issued a subpoena to the Respondent which directed the Respondent to appear before the Commissioner's designees on July 27, 2005, to provide documents and testimony pursuant to a lawful investigation being conducted by the Division.
3. The Respondent received legal service of the subpoena on June 24, 2005.
4. The Respondent failed to appear before the Commissioner's designee on July 27, 2005, as subpoenaed and ordered by the Commissioner.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Tenn. Code Ann. § 56-6-112(a)(2) provides, that the Commissioner may place on probation, suspend, or revoke a license or may levy a civil penalty in accordance with subsection (e), or take any combination of such actions, under this part if she finds that an insurance producer has violated any law, rule, subpoena or order of the Commissioner.

2. The State has met its burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence that the Respondent violated the subpoena of the Commissioner directing him to appear before the Commissioner's designees.

It is therefore ORDERED that license number 705632, issued to Steven Jack Wood, be REVOKED and that the Respondent be ordered to pay One Thousand Dollars ($1000) for the violation of Tenn. Code Ann. § 56-6-112(a)(2) for a total amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000).

This Initial Order entered and effective this 22nd day of February, 2006.

APPENDIX A TO INITIAL ORDER
NOTICE OF APPEAL PROCEDURES

Review of Initial Order

This Initial Order shall become a Final Order (reviewable as set forth below) fifteen (15) days after the entry date of this Initial Order, unless either or both of the following actions are taken:

(1) A party files a petition for appeal to the agency, stating the basis of the appeal, or the agency on its own motion gives written notice of its intention to review the Initial Order, within fifteen (15) days after the entry date of the Initial Order. If either of these actions occurs, there is no Final Order until review by the agency and entry of a new Final Order or adoption and entry of the Initial Order, in whole or in part, as the Final Order. A petition for appeal to the agency must be filed within the proper time period with the Administrative Procedures Division of the Office of the Secretary of State, 8th Floor, William R. Snodgrass Tower, 312 Eighth Avenue N., Nashville, Tennessee, 37243. (Telephone No. (615) 741-7008). See Tennessee Code Annotated, Section (T.C.A. §) 4-5-315, on review of initial orders by the agency.

(2) A party files a petition for reconsideration of this Initial Order, stating the specific reasons why the Initial Order was in error within fifteen (15) days after the entry date of the Initial Order. This petition must be filed with the Administrative Procedures Division at the above address. A petition for reconsideration is deemed denied if no action is taken within twenty (20) days of filing. A new fifteen (15) day period for the filing of an appeal to the agency (as set forth in paragraph (1) above) starts to run from the entry date of an order disposing of a petition for reconsideration, or from the twentieth day after filing of the petition, if no order is issued. See T.C.A. §4-5-317 on petitions for reconsideration.

A party may petition the agency for a stay of the Initial Order within seven (7) days after the entry date of the order. See T.C.A. §4-5-316.

Review of Final Order

Within fifteen (15) days after the Initial Order becomes a Final Order, a party may file a petition for reconsideration of the Final Order, in which petitioner shall state the specific reasons why the Initial Order was in error. If no action is taken within twenty (20) days of filing of the petition, it is deemed denied. See T.C.A. §4-5-317 on petitions for reconsideration.

A party may petition the agency for a stay of the Final Order within seven (7) days after the entry date of the order. See T.C.A. §4-5-316.

YOU WILL NOT RECEIVE FURTHER NOTICE OF THE INITIAL ORDER BECOMING A FINAL ORDER

A person who is aggrieved by a final decision in a contested case may seek judicial review of the Final Order by filing a petition for review in a Chancery Court having jurisdiction (generally, Davidson County Chancery Court) within sixty (60) days after the entry date of a Final Order or, if a petition for reconsideration is granted, within sixty (60) days of the entry date of the Final Order disposing of the petition. (However, the filing of a petition for reconsideration does not itself act to extend the sixty day period, if the petition is not granted.) A reviewing court also may order a stay of the Final Order upon appropriate terms. See T.C.A. §4-5-322 and §4-5-317.
