

Our agency makes a conscientious effort to appoint people so that the membership of our boards/commissions reflects the demographic makeup of our geographic service area. Our agency is committed to selecting the most qualified individuals to serve, and values diversity among the membership of our boards and commissions.