The screenshot shows the Pay.gov website interface for 'CLIA Laboratory User Fees'. At the top, there is a search bar and navigation links for 'MAKE A PAYMENT', 'FIND AN AGENCY', and 'ONLINE HELP'. The main heading is 'CLIA Laboratory User Fees'. Below this, a progress indicator shows four steps: 'Before You Begin', '1 Complete Agency Form', '2 Enter Payment Info', '3 Review & Submit', and '4 Confirmation'. The current step is '2 Enter Payment Info'. Under 'Payment Information', the amount is $150.00. A section titled '* I want to pay with my:' has two radio button options: 'Bank account (ACH)' and 'Debit or credit card'. At the bottom left, there are buttons for 'Previous', 'Return to Form', and 'Cancel'. At the bottom right, there is a 'Next' button, which is highlighted with a red arrow. To the right of the main content, there is a 'Need Help?' section with contact information for the CLIA Laboratory Program, including a phone number and a website link.

If you enter the address or the name of the laboratory differently than how it is listed in the CLIA Data system it is okay. There are no edits against the CLIA database by Pay.gov.

Pay.gov caveats:

1. Payments to more than one CLIA number at a time are not allowed.
2. There is no place for a comment or note.
3. Attachment of any documentation (such as the fee coupon or a request for address change) is not possible.
4. Paying one fee with two credit cards at the same time is not possible. However, multiple single transactions for the same fee is allowed. Each transaction has to be performed separately.
5. Pay.gov does not accept PayPal™.
