

From March 1, 2020 to April 30, 2022 there were 170,023 pregnancies completed in TN, of which 12,850 (8%) had a PCR-confirmed COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy

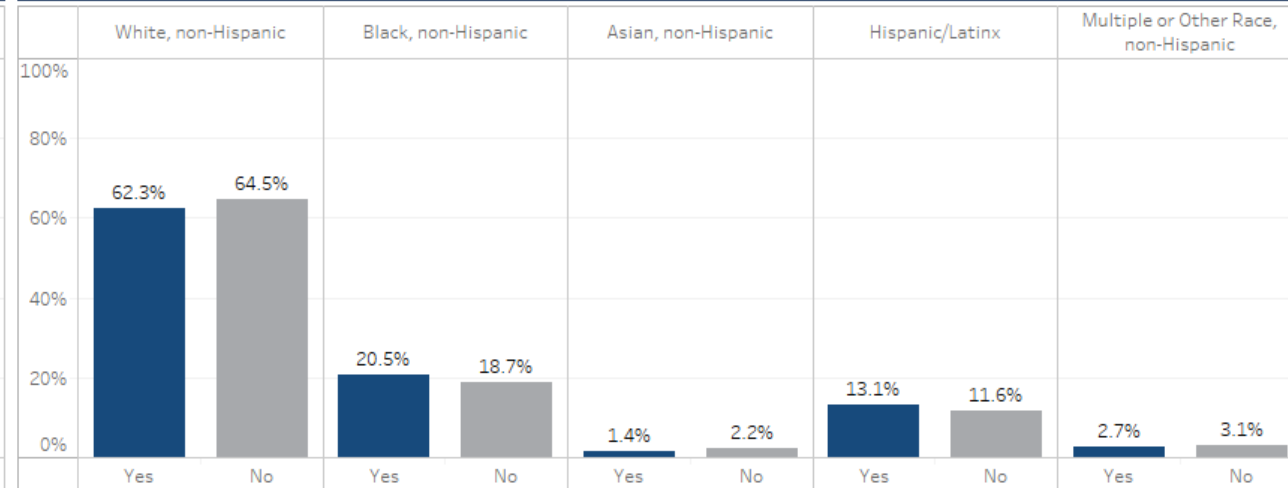

COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy rates by public health region

Age distribution by COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy

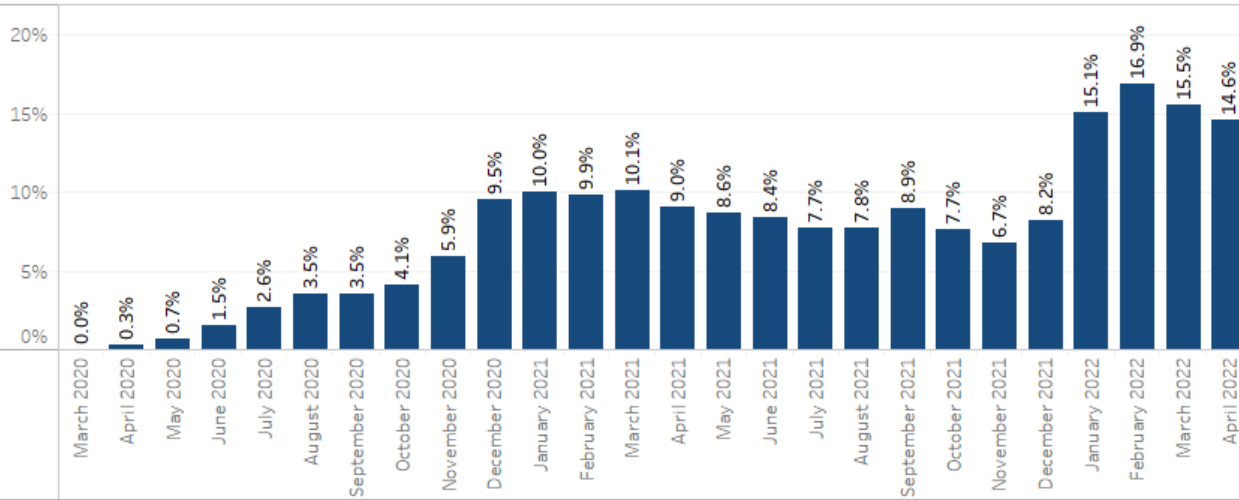

Racial/ethnic distributions by COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy

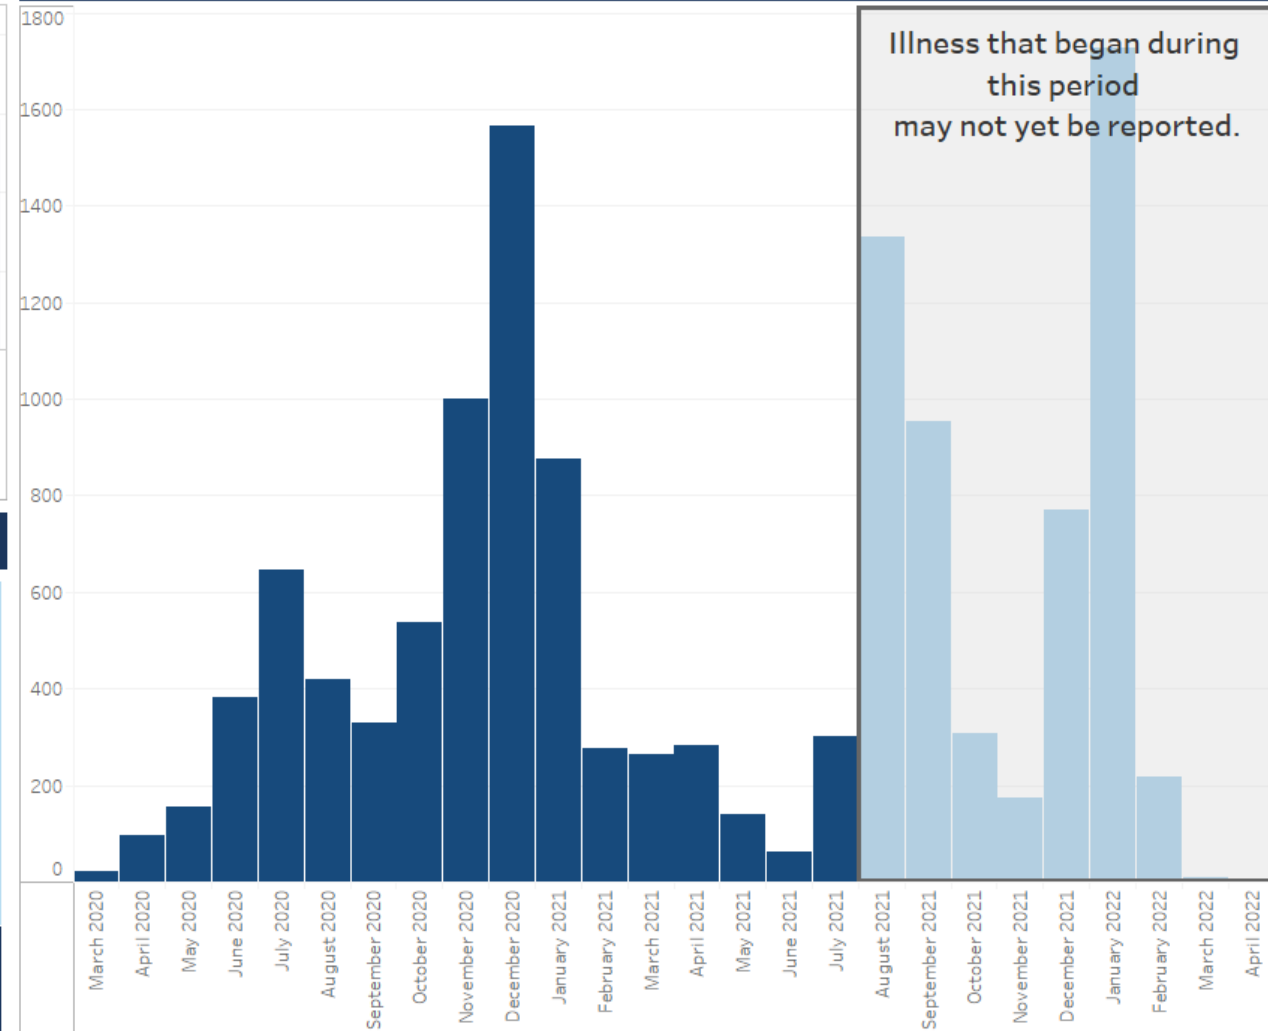

COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy
■ Yes
■ No

*Only pregnancies that have resulted in a live birth are included in these data, therefore data for pregnancies that are ongoing are not presented here.

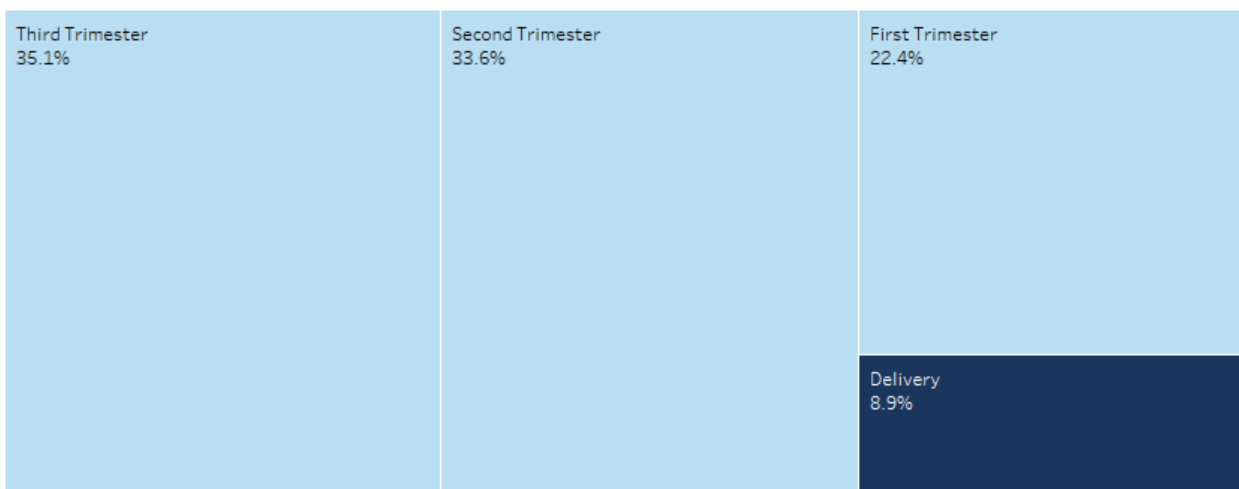

Percentage of infants born to a COVID-19 case in pregnancy

Timing of COVID-19 infection among cases in pregnancy†

Timing of COVID-19 infection in pregnancy

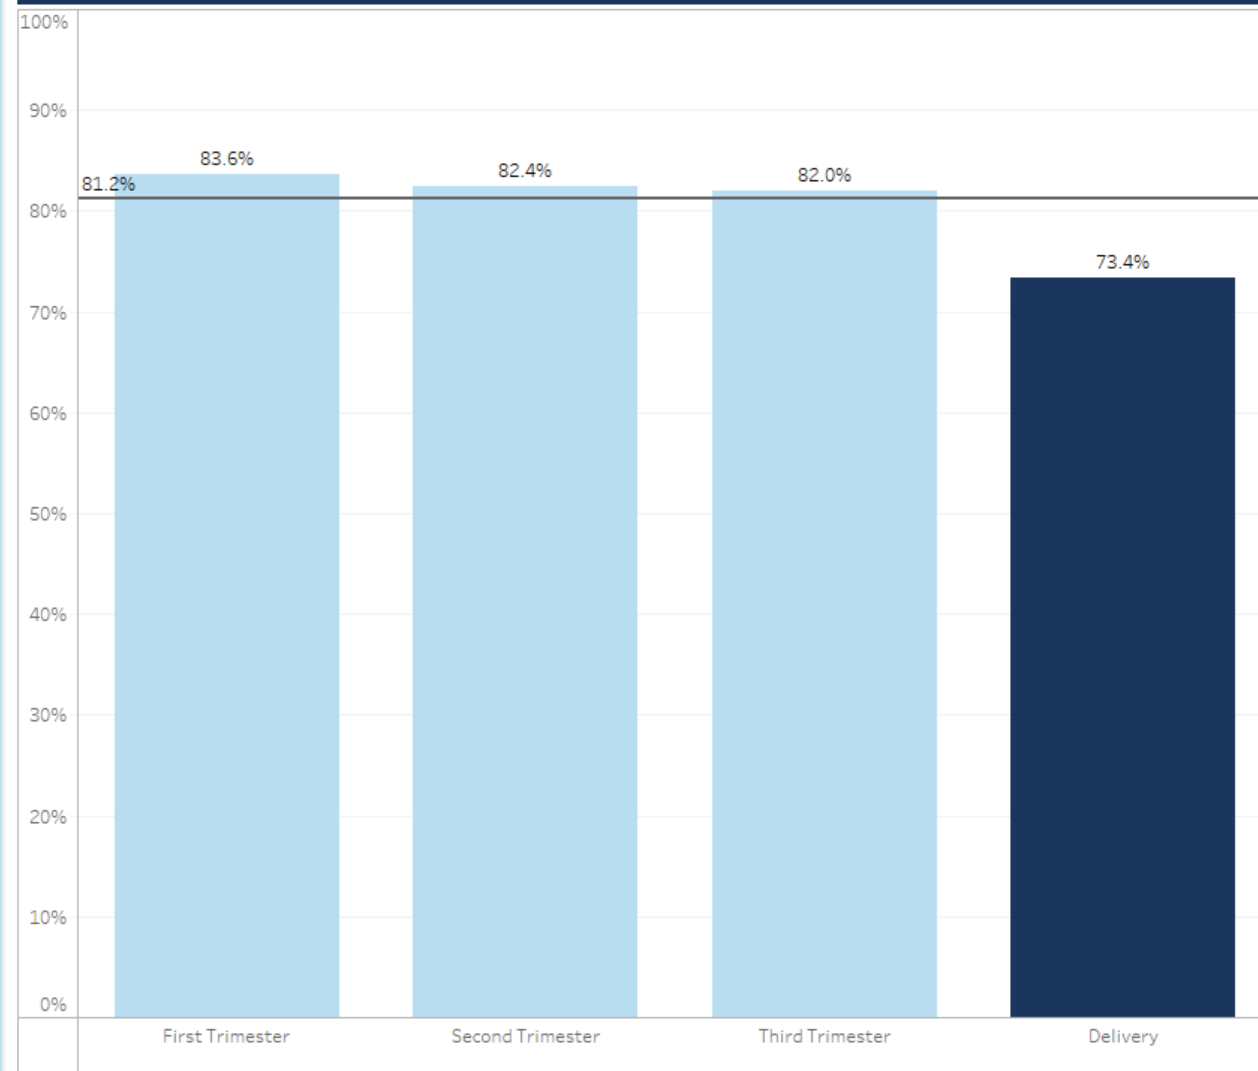

June 2021 through February 2022 should be interpreted with caution as COVID-19 cases may still be pregnant thus underestimating these numbers.

*Only pregnancies that have resulted in a live birth are included in these data, therefore data for pregnancies that are ongoing are not presented here.

From March 1, 2020 to April 30, 2022, 13,045 infants were born to those diagnosed with COVID-19 in pregnancy. There have been 61 infants with PCR-confirmed COVID-19 at delivery hospitalization.

Breastfeeding initiation by timing of COVID-19 diagnosis

*Only pregnancies that have resulted in a live birth are included in these data, therefore data for pregnancies that are ongoing are not presented here.

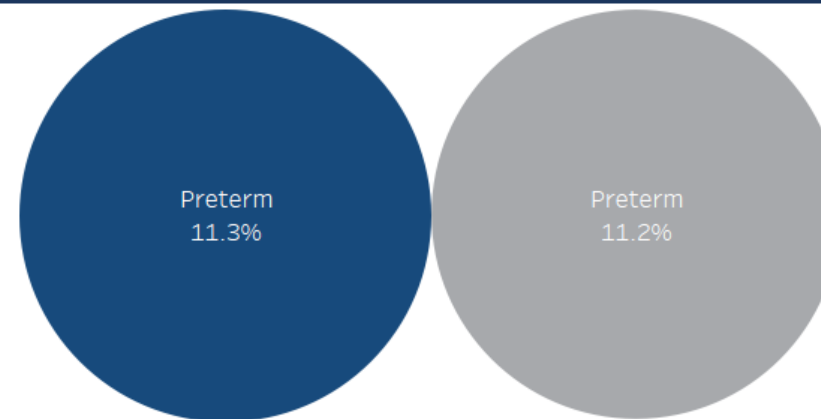

COVID-19 diagnosis in Pregnancy

Yes No

Low birth weight by COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy

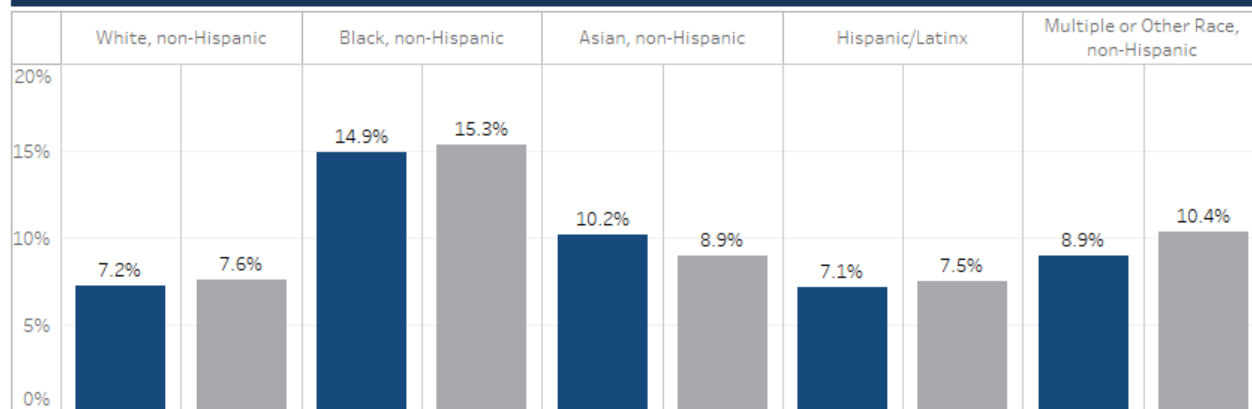

Preterm birth by COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy†

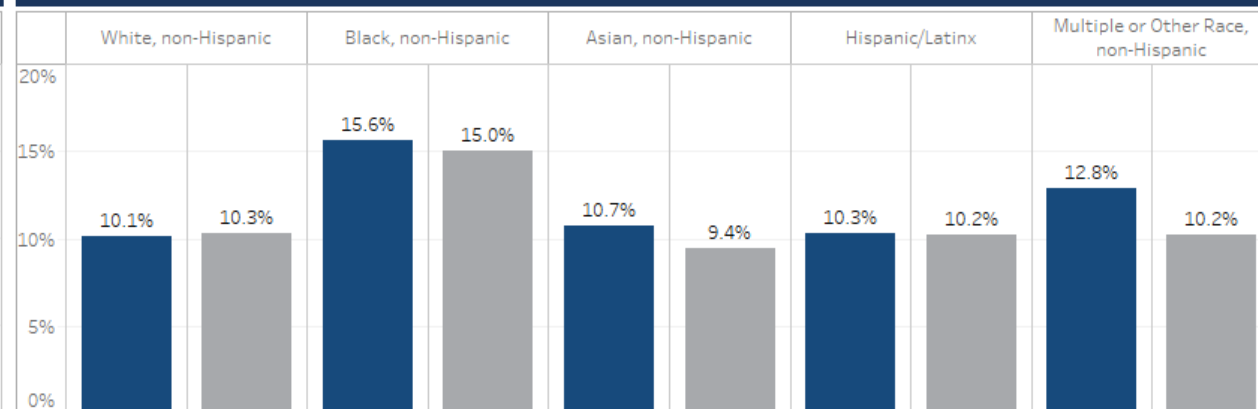

†Eligible preterm births included only those with a COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy prior to 37 weeks gestation.

Racial/ethnic distributions of low birth weight by COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy‡

Racial/ethnic distributions of preterm birth by COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy§

*Only pregnancies that have resulted in a live birth are included in these data, therefore data for pregnancies that are ongoing are not presented here.