Amendment filed May 28, 1999; effective September 28, 1999.*

0520-02-02-.02 CAREER LADDER ELIGIBILITY.

- (1) The following teachers with a career ladder endorsement shall be eligible to receive career ladder payments until retirement:
 - (a) General education;
 - (b) Career and technical education;
 - (c) Occupational;
 - (d) Special education;
 - (e) School nutrition program supervisors;
 - (f) Speech and language specialists;
 - (g) Librarians;
 - (h) School counselors;
 - (i) Consulting teachers;

(Rule 0520-02-02-.02, continued)

- (j) School psychologists and social workers;
 - (k) Attendance supervisors;
 - (l) Principals;
 - (m) Assistant principals; and
 - (n) Supervisors.
- (2) Additionally, educators in the following positions who meet the specified requirements shall be eligible to receive career ladder payments until retirement:
- (a) Permanent Substitute Teachers or Part-time Teachers.
 - 1. A permanent substitute or part-time teacher shall be defined as a teacher who is employed to teach at least 540 hours (actual instructional time) during any given school year.
 - 2. A permanent substitute or part-time teacher shall receive that portion of the incentive salary supplement for his or her career level proportionate to the percentage of total instructional time (1080 hours) worked during the school year.
 - (b) Educators in Dual Positions.
 - 1. Educators employed full-time in dual or multiple assignments shall be eligible to receive full salary supplements.
 - 2. Educators employed full-time in dual or multiple assignments may participate in the career ladder program provided that at least fifty percent (50%) of their time is spent in assignments that are covered by the career ladder system.
 - (c) Teaching Principals.
 - 1. The local board of education shall grant fifty percent (50%) credit for experience to teaching principals with a valid principal endorsement who spend less than fifty percent (50%) of the time dedicated to administrative duties.
 - 2. The local board of education shall grant fifty percent (50%) credit for experience to teaching assistant principals with a valid principal endorsement who spend less than fifty percent (50%) of the time dedicated to administrative duties.

Authority: T.C.A. §§ 49-5-5001 et seq., 49-5-5005; 49-5-5201 et seq., 49-5-5301; 49-5-5401 and 49-5-5501. Administrative History: (For history prior to November 14, 1986 see pages i through vii.) Amendment filed September 30, 1986; effective November 14, 1986. Amendment filed January 31, 1995; effective May 31, 1995. Amendment filed May 28, 1999; effective September 28, 1999.

0520-02-02-.03 BREAKS IN SERVICE.

- (1) A break in service shall be defined as any interruption in teaching service on the part of a teacher, assistant principal, principal, instructional supervisor, or other educator with a career ladder endorsement.

- (a) If an educator's employment includes a break in service, that educator's career ladder endorsement shall be "frozen" at the commencement of the break in service.
 - (b) If the break in service is less than 100 days (in any one school year), that year shall count toward the educator's years of experience. If the break in service is 100 days or more (in any one school year), that year shall not count toward the educator's years of experience.
 - (c) Upon re-employment of a career ladder endorsed educator after a break in service, the educator shall notify the Director of Schools of his or her career ladder eligibility.
- (2) A career ladder educator who moves temporarily into a professional position not included in the career ladder program, and which is not considered an interruption in teaching service, may continue to use the previous valid career ladder endorsement and receive the supplement associated with it for one (1) year. Thereafter, the career ladder educator shall be subject to the provisions of that position unless the educator returns to the previously held position, and the educator's previously held career ladder endorsement shall be frozen in accordance with the provisions stipulated in section (1) of this rule. It shall be the responsibility of the local school system to notify the Office of Teacher Licensing when an educator is placed temporarily in a position not included in the career ladder program.
